THE JOURNAL OF AMERICAN FOLK-LORE.

THE JOURNAL OF AMERICAN FOLK-LORE (Quarterly: Editor, Alexander F. Chamberlain; Associate Editor, William W. Newell), issued by The American Folk-Lore Society, is designed for the collection and publication of the folk-lore and mythology of the American Continent.

The subscription price is Three Dollars per annum. A limited number of copies of the completed volumes (Vols. I.-XVIII., 1888-1905) remain on hand, and may be procured of the publishers, on payment of the annual fee for each volume. A cover, suitable for binding, is prepared, and will be forwarded by the publishers, through the mail, on receipt of 30 cents a volume.

The American Folk-Lore Society was organized January 4, 1888. The Society holds annual meetings, at which reports are received and papers read. The membership fee is three dollars, payable on the 1st of January in each year. Members are entitled to receive the Journal of American Folk-Lore. Subscribers to the Journal, or other persons interested in the objects of the Society, are eligible to membership, and are requested to address the Permanent Secretary to that end.
